OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 4, 1902

NO. 54

SANTA FE ROAD WILL COME INTO OAKLAND OVER THE CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA LINE.

LOCAL COMPANY WILL OPERATE FORTY MILES. CORPORATION FORMED WITH MILLION CAPITAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—The Santa Fe Railroad is coming into Oakland, and that very soon unless there is some unexpected hitch in the arrangements.

"Unless I am very much deceived the Santa Fe cars will be running to the foot of Fortieth street connecting with a new ferry system inside of twelve months," said a prominent capitalist who has special opportunities for knowing what he is talking about. What happened today was the filing of articles of incorporation in this city of the Oakland & East Side Railroad Company, with a capital stock of $1,000,000. The objects of the corporation are set forth in the articles to purchase the California & Nevada Railroad, with all its franchises, rights of way and terminals, and to reconstruct and operate the same as either a Broad Gauge or Narrow Gauge railroad.

WHY CORPORATION WAS FORMED.

As a fact the corporation was formed specifically to facilitate the entrance of the Santa Fe into Oakland. There is no longer any concealment about that. It is an arrangement between the representatives of the Santa Fe Company, the Realty Syndicate and Charles H. Smith, who holds the bonds of the California and Nevada road, which is now advertised for sale under foreclosure.

THE ARTICLES DRAWN.

The articles were drawn up by Galvin & Bolton, who represented Mr. Smith in the litigation over the bonds, and who are now pushing the foreclosure proceedings. A. E. Bolton, Mr. Galpin's law partner, is one of the incorporators.

The other four are M. J. Keller, Frank C. Havens, A. de Laveaga and George Pratt.

It was ascertained that the franchise of the old California and Nevada road, not satisfactory to the Santa Fe people.

THE FRANCHISES.

These franchises have half expired and do not allow the latitude desired by the Santa Fe. The new company has virtually been formed by the Realty Syndicate and the Smith interests to secure the necessary franchises in Oakland, Emeryville and Berkeley, and if they are successful, the Oakland and East Side Company will ultimately be absorbed by the Santa Fe. That much can be positively stated.

WHAT HAVENS SAYS.

Frank C. Havens admitted that the new company was organized to bring the Santa Fe into Oakland, but he said no data had been secured for everything depended on getting new franchises.

Mr. Galpin made no concealment of the fact that the Santa Fe was behind the deal.

As the matter stands the California and Nevada and its assigns have the right of way, while the Realty Syndicate has secured the lands required for track and terminal facilities, and all that is needed to complete the deal is the procuring of new franchises from Oakland, Berkeley and Emeryville that will enable the Santa Fe to carry out its designs. It is understood that the Santa Fe wishes to come in here over a double track line from San Pablo.

LARGE PASSENGER DEPOT.

Behind this is a plan to build a fine passenger depot at the ferry approach somewhere near Fortieth street.

A railroad man conversant with the plans of the Santa Fe said there was no doubt the Santa Fe was planning to make Oakland its main terminus on San Francisco Bay.

REDUCE POINT RICHMOND.

If successful in carrying out its designs Point Richmond would be reduced to the position of a freight terminus.

If the Santa Fe builds a fine depot at Fortieth street there is little doubt that what the Southern Pacific would follow suit with another at Sixteenth street.

RAILROAD IS SEPARATE.

Mr. Havens said the railroad was separate from the ferry project, but from other sources it was learned that they are closely related, for a ferry is a necessary adjunct to any transcontinental terminus in this city. The following excerpts from the articles of incorporation will give an idea of what its purposes are:

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

"To transact a general business; to acquire the entire railroad system of the California and Nevada Railroad Company (including all of the real and personal property of said corporation, its branches, licenses, easements, rights and privileges); to reconstruct said railroad with either single or double, and with narrow or broad gauge tracks, and with all necessary or proper turn-outs and switches; to construct and equip branches and extensions thereof; to operate a narrow or broad gauge railroad, as provided for in these articles, by steam or other power; to acquire, purchase, take, hold, own, use, lease, hire, exchange and deal in real estate and personal property of all kinds and description, franchises, licenses, easements, rights of way, bonds and securities of either private or public or quasi-public corporations, patent rights and inventions, and to sell, exchange, transfer, carry, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of, or hypothecate, the same; to subscribe for, purchase, acquire, receive in exchange for its own stock or other property, hold, own, pledge, sell, exchange and dispose of, stock or shares in other corporations of all kinds, and to have and exercise all of the rights and privileges of a stockholder in such corporations; to guarantee bonds of other corporations whose stock or property, or any part thereof, may become the property of this corporation; to manage and conduct pleasure resorts or grounds in connection with the business of said railroad, and to operate, manage, conduct or carry on any and all kinds of other business in which it may be deemed profitable to engage in connection with or incidental to the purposes hereinabove expressed, to borrow money and give security for the payment thereof; to loan money and to take security for the payment thereof; to enter into all lawful contractual relations with other persons, firms, associations or corporations, for any and all purposes; to exercise the right of eminent domain; to do and perform any and all acts which may be either necessary or proper or incidental to the carrying out of any or all of the purposes for which this corporation is formed.

WHERE THE ROAD RUNS.

"That the place from and to which said railroad is intended to be run and to be constructed and operated is from a terminal in the city of Oakland, county of Alameda, through said city of Oakland and the towns of Emeryville and Berkeley, and thence through the counties of Alameda and Contra Costa along or near the present line of said California and Nevada Railroad Company to the present terminal of that railroad at the town of Bryant, together with an extension hereafter to be determined to the town of Walnut Creek, together with one or more intermediate branches or connections with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company.

It is regarded as a matter of course that the franchises will be granted in the desired form, for the importance of having Oakland made the main terminus of the Santa Fe can hardly be overestimated.

Oddly enough, the location of the proposed depot makes Berkeley and Emeryville equal sharers in the benefits that will accrue from the big railway deal. Since the completion of the Southern Pacific Coast line the southern overland passenger business of that company has been almost entirely diverted from Oakland, and the Santa Fe has left this city out from the start, not from choice, but because circumstances made it difficult and inexpedient to come here when the line was built.

SANTA FE'S CHANCES.

Now the Santa Fe has a chance to get in here—the only one open to it apparently—and the rapid growth of Oakland and Berkeley has impressed the managers of the company with the wisdom of making their terminal here instead of at a small village far up the bay.

Now the Santa Fe has a chance to get in here—the only one open to it apparently—and the rapid growth of Oakland and Berkeley has impressed the managers of the company with the wisdom of making their terminal here instead of at a small village far up the bay.

SWIMMER MAKES A WORLD'S RECORD

BOSTON, Mar. 4.—Harry L. Lemoyne of Brooklyn made a new world's swimming record at the Sportsmen's show last night by swimming the sixty yards in 35.15 seconds. The world's record was 35.45 seconds and the American record 35 seconds.

LIFE INSURANCE CASE DECIDED IN COURT.

Judge Hebbard Says Mother Can Hold Insurance Against the Claim of the Widow and Child.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—Superior Judge Hebbard, by sustaining a demurrer to the third amended complaint in the case of Sheehan vs. Journeymen Butchers' Association and denying the plaintiffs leave to amend their complaint, has decided a law point of considerable interest to all members of benefit, endowment and fraternal insurance societies.

Edward F. Sheehan, a member of the Journeymen Butchers' Association, named his mother as beneficiary of the endowment fund of about $500 payable at his death.

CONTENTION OF WIDOW. Thereafter he married, but he never changed the designation of his mother as beneficiary. After his death his widow and child brought suit to recover the endowment fund.

They contended that since the charter of the association, a corporation, stated, the object of the society to be "to relieve the distress of widows and orphans," the association had not the power to bind itself to pay the endowment fund to any relative except the widow and orphans of a deceased member, and that the provisions in the constitution and by-laws of the association allowing a member to designate as beneficiary any member of his family, blood relation or dependent were invalid as an attempt to enlarge the powers guaranteed by the charter.

WHAT THE MOTHER SAYS.

The mother contended that the words in the charter "to relieve the distress of widows and orphans" expressed merely the general benevolent intention of the association and were not a limitation of the relieving power of the association. Judge Hebbard sustained this contention and his decision in effect awards the money to the mother.

MANY WERE INTERESTED.

A good deal of interest has been taken in the case, not only by journeymen butchers but by other insurance societies. For the charters of many societies contain the "widow and orphan" clauses and an adverse decision would have invalidated the designations of hundreds of endowment certificates and would have deprived unnumbered members of societies having such clause in their charters of the benefit of the insurance feature of the societies.

MANY POOR CHARITERS.

The increasing amount of litigation about the insurance funds of societies indicates that the charters and constitutions of many such societies are too loosely and indefinitely phrased.

POLICE CHIEFS IN SESSION.

Plan New Ways to Catch Thieves on the Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 4.—The police chiefs of the police departments of the cities of the Pacific Coast States met today in the Police Commissioners' rooms at the Hall of Justice. About twenty of the chiefs were in attendance.

Meeting Was Called.

The meeting was called by Chief Wittman, after considerable correspondence with the heads of the police departments of the various cities, and its object is to effect an organization that will bring about a more perfect system of the work of the police of the coast cities.

Identification Bureau.

It will include an identification bureau, which will bring about a free exchange of information concerning the criminal element, and the association will affiliate with the National Bureau of Identification and in that way each police department on the coast will be informed of all the Eastern and Canadian cities and at the same time keep the police of the coast advised with the operations of the criminal element of the West.

What Wittman Says.

"It is the purpose of the police chiefs in calling this convention to organize for a more systematic handling of the criminal element," said Wittman. "As it is now, the police of the smaller cities are not able to identify the criminals who drift into their neighborhoods or to give assistance to the police of their neighboring cities for want of proper information concerning the movements of the unlawful element. We will by this organization endeavor to overcome that, arranging a system of exchanging information. Many of the police departments of the smaller cities cannot maintain a regular gallery, and the records and personal characteristics of such persons. The police departments that may have such galleries can supply their less fortunate fellows, at scarcely any expense and the results they get from giving such information will more than repay the outlay."

Their First Meeting.

"This is our first meeting, and it is possible that the association will meet yearly, meeting in different cities each year. These conventions should bring about a better acquaintance with the various departments and with the men who control them."

Police Chiefs to Attend.

The police chiefs who signified their intention to be present at the convention are: J. Reynolds, Butte, Mont.; Chas. Elton, Los Angeles; James A. Kildward, San Jose; J. E. Sullivan, Sacramento; S. C. Houghins, Oakland; W. F. Stanford, Vallejo; John Corbett, Alameda; Frank Briare, Stockton; E. W. Bushinhead, San Diego; W. W. Witherspoon, Spokane; J. V. Morgan, Fresno; Jacob G. Sharp, Santa Barbara; Matthew Rawie, Santa Cruz; W. W. Freeman, Pasadena; D. M. McLaughlin, Portland; H. B. Hinkins, Eureka; and Charles H. Holmes, Santa Rosa. John Sullivan of Seattle and William Frazier of Tacoma wrote that they could not attend, but said they were heartily in favor of the movement and would do all in their power to carry out its aims.

SPECIAL AUCTION.

PRINCE ON A TOUR.

Henry Sees the Large Building in City of Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 4.—The Chicago which Prince Henry of Prussia saw last night by the glare of many lights was presented to him today by the clearer light of the sun. The welcome, which he received last night was repeated and emphasized and he was given further opportunity to enjoy his expressed wish of meeting American citizens at close range.

Listeners to an Address.

During the day he listened to an address on the Central Bund of St. Paul, placed a wreath on the Lincoln monument in Lincoln Park and enjoyed a luncheon and reception at the Germania Club.

He Arose Early.

The Prince, contrary to expectations, rose early. But he was no more energetic than the crowd. By 8:30 o'clock fully 3,000 people packed the sidewalk in front of the hotel.

Photographers stood at every vantage point ready to snatch a likeness of the Prince when he emerged. It was nearly 10 o'clock before the patience was rewarded. The Prince, having two hours at his disposal, concluded that a drive about the city would best pass the time.

Mile a Minute Whisk.

Fournier, the French chauffeur, stood ready to take the Prince for a mile-a-minute whisk around the boulevards, but the Prince decided in favor of a carriage in order that members of his entourage might also enjoy the bracing air. As the long cavalcade, unhurried, sped through the streets, knots of people rushed from buildings, generally too late to see the Prince, whose carriage was near the head of the line. The first stop was made at the magnificent new building of Illinois Trust and Savings Bank.

Prince Seemed Pleased.

OLD BARNUM'S GOES TO THE CREDITORS.

Proprietor Could Not Meet the Bills and the Famous Old Restaurant is in Financial Trouble.

Barnum's restaurant, corner of Seventh and Broadway, the well known hostelry, which for the last forty-five years has been the headquarters for the epicures and bon vivants of Oakland, is in financial distress and has been surrendered to its creditors.

The establishment came into existence in 1857, when Oakland was scarcely a village. The reputation of Barnum's for good dinners and excellent wine soon spread across the bay, and the San Francisco gourmets began to patronize the secluded resort. Leandro Paggi, one of the original proprietors and uncle of the present Paggi, amassed a fortune through the resort and returned to Italy. The later days was the rendezvous of Judges, merchants, lawyers and the fashionable of the town. Many an imposing symposium of brilliant wits and wise men has been held there, and the events have passed into the history of the city of Oakland.

The decline of the restaurant from the high tide of popular favor may be attributed to the death of one of the members of the firm, Pierre Laval, and to the fact that the business of the town has been steadily drifting in the opposite direction.

The liabilities of the restaurant are approximately $50,000. The assets have not been determined, but it is thought the creditors will be fortunate if they realize 40 or 50 cents on the dollar. The affairs of the restaurant are in the hands of Attorney George E. De Golia and Max Marceuse. The creditors held a meeting yesterday and decided to meet again tomorrow to take an inventory of the assets and see what can be realized from them. Tony Paggi, the surviving member of the firm of Laval and Paggi, has turned the business over to the creditors.

The assets consist of outstanding obligations owing the firm. Behind many of the bills there lies an interesting story of midnight dinners, wine and women furnishing the setting for an exquisite feast. Most of the accounts have been outlawed and cannot be collected.

Among the heaviest creditors are: Umben & Co., agents, rents $1,000; A. Vignier, $10; S. Van Bergen, $207; Lorenzo & Delucchi, $100; Bayle, Lacombe & Co., $280; Louis Bruzzone, $235; Giacomo Laveglia, $250; C. Schilling & Co., $102.50; Joseph Bonhaven, $125. Besides there is $100 due to cooks and waiters of the establishment.

The creditors are anxious to have Tony Paggi continue the business and will settle with him on easy terms.

In northern portion, light northerly wind, changing to southwesterly; warmer in north portion Wednesday; heavy frosts Wednesday morning in southern portion.

IT IS EASY TO FIND GOLD

Many Nuggets are Being Picked Up in the North.

REDDING, Cal., Mar. 4.—One of the most peculiar results of the continued storm in this county is the finding in the gulches and creeks around the town of Shasta of many gold nuggets in spots that have been worked many times since 1850 and which have long been supposed to be barren of the yellow metal. The nuggets found range in value from a few cents to $10. The miners claim that while some of these may have come from tailings or overlooked crevices, yet the severest storm must have washed some of them from deposits—quartz, seam and placer—along the bluffs or banks of the streams, and these main treasure houses await the stroke of the lucky pick wielder. The miners of surface workings are jubilant, maintaining that while millions have been taken from the Shasta hills, the accumulation of years of erosion, yet the finding of gold in these worked-out diggings shows there is probably more of it in the ground than was ever taken out.

WEATHER FORECAST.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—Weather forecast: San Francisco and vicinity: Cloudy this afternoon and tonight, probably rain Wednesday, fresh easterly wind changing to southerly. Northern California: Cloudy, unsettled weather this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday with rain Wednesday.

SAYS TEACHER ABUSED HIS BOY

School Board Adopts New Rules Changing the Scholastic Terms

Directors Robinson and Russ were absent when the Board of Education met last night.

The following communication was read and referred to the Committee on Rules:

"To the Honorable Board of Education: I bring to your notice something of the management at the Piedmont School under the Principalship of Mr. Martin. I have had children going to school for fourteen years, most of the time to the Piedmont school, and until February 19, 1902, two boys, and not at any time have I complained until Mr. J. D. Martin came. He has been and is in the habit of slapping my boys on both sides of the face, also snapping them in the face with his finger nails. He takes the youngest, aged ten, by the coat collar and the arm and throws him about in anger, and, as I do not treat my children in this way at home, I very seriously object to this at school. He also whipped him with a wooden bat about four weeks ago, which he was asked not to do, and now says he should have another, and when he, Mr. Martin, was told that Howard was so frightened that we were afraid of his health being impaired, he said to Mrs. Thompson that he wanted Howard to be afraid of him. When spoken to again about the matter, he denied it, but he did say it. Since then the boy has not slept as he should. He awakens from sleep in a terrible fright so that we have had to send him from home that he might forget.

"I went to the school and asked Howard's teacher, Miss Leach, to give me in writing a list of his bad conduct, for which he has been shamefully punished, but Mr. Martin would not permit her to give one. "I also wish to show to this Honorable Board that I have set forth my own complaints only, but should the Board desire, I can name other children that have been treated in the same way. Up to this present trouble, I have had the friendliest feeling for Mr. Martin. Very respectfully,"

"E. S. THOMPSON,"
"35 Linda Vista Avenue."

A communication from C. A. Kirtley, who proposed to sell the Board sixty patent fire extinguishers, was read and referred to the Committee on Buildings and Grounds, after Director Gray had sharply remarked that he wanted some proof presented that the machines had ever served any useful purpose, or would be of any practical benefit.

The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the pay of census marshals be fixed at the sum of $5 per day, and that of each assistant to census marshals be fixed at the sum of $4 per day, for each day actually employed. That the Board of Education appoint the census marshal and two assistants in open Board, and the additional census marshals in all one census marshal and three assistants. That the City Superintendent of Schools be authorized to employ, in his judgment he deems it necessary, additional help to act as 'tracers'."

CENSUS MARSHAL.
Albert Brown was elected census marshal and A. Kinkner and E. W. Owens assistants.

SUMMER VACATION.
The Board adopted a revised set of rules. The principal change is in relation to the summer vacation, which will hereafter fall later in the season than heretofore. In order to bring about the change there will be an extra two weeks' vacation in 1902. The school year is divided into two terms—the first of nine weeks, the second of twenty-three weeks.

The first term will begin on the second Monday in August instead of the last Monday of July. By another change both High schools are placed under the jurisdiction of the High School Committee, except that the committee on Industrial Education is given charge of the manual training department. Commercial schools are dropped from the list of evening schools. The rule relating to the qualifications of school principals was amended to require principals of grammar and primary schools to be graduates of some college or university, but this is not to apply to principals now employed in the department.

This section was adopted after a sharp struggle. Directors Cliff and Chairman Redington thought it should not apply to the principals of primary schools. A motion by Director Isaacs to strike out the whole section was lost by a vote of 5 to 4. A motion by Director Evans to amend the same was also lost. Then the section was adopted by a vote of 5 to 3. Redington, Cliff and Isaacs voting no. Under the amended rules teachers must be in their schools at 8:30 in the morning and in their class rooms at 9:45. In stormy weather they must be in their class rooms by 8:30.

WHEN A TEACHER MARRIES.
Director Cliff called attention to the rule which declares that when a female teacher gets married her position thereby becomes vacant. He said this did not give a teacher a day's gratuity, even give her an opportunity to resign. He doubted whether the Board had the legal power to make such an arbitrary rule.

Director Evans said the teachers were always permitted to teach the term out, and the rule was never literally enforced. Cliff suggested that it be altered to conform to the practice of the Board, but Director Gray said the rule in that form was adopted for its moral effect. It was allowed to stand, Director Cliff voting no and Mr. Knox asking to be excused from voting.

The High School Committee recommended the temporary withdrawal of the Bible readings from the list of High school studies to be made permanent, and a resolution to that effect was adopted, Director Randolph voting no.

THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

The tremendous commercial activity of San Francisco is in no way better evidenced than by the showing made by San Francisco's largest House Furnishing establishment, the Pattosien Furniture Company. The truly tremendous strides of this institution are attracting much attention, and the illustrations shown here in our columns of the new enterprises just launched by Mr. Pattosien show that his up-to-date business ideas and knowledge of the furniture business is meeting with a marvelous response. Ten years ago had any one suggested that a store in the Mission was destined to be a factor in the commercial life of San Francisco he would have been laughed at. Yet just about that time the Pattosien Furniture Company was started on Sixteenth street in a modest way.

business had so grown that it became imperative to secure larger quarters. So the corner of Mission and Sixteenth streets was leased for a term of years and the great Pattosien Furniture building was erected. The space occupied by the new building was so tremendous that the move was looked upon with doubts by many. But the wisdom of building such a great store—by far the largest furniture building on the coast—was soon demonstrated, and to-day, after four years in the big building, business has grown to such proportions that the company has virtually been forced to establish two new stores—one in Oakland and one in Palo Alto.

The Oakland Store.

The Oakland Store will be cen-

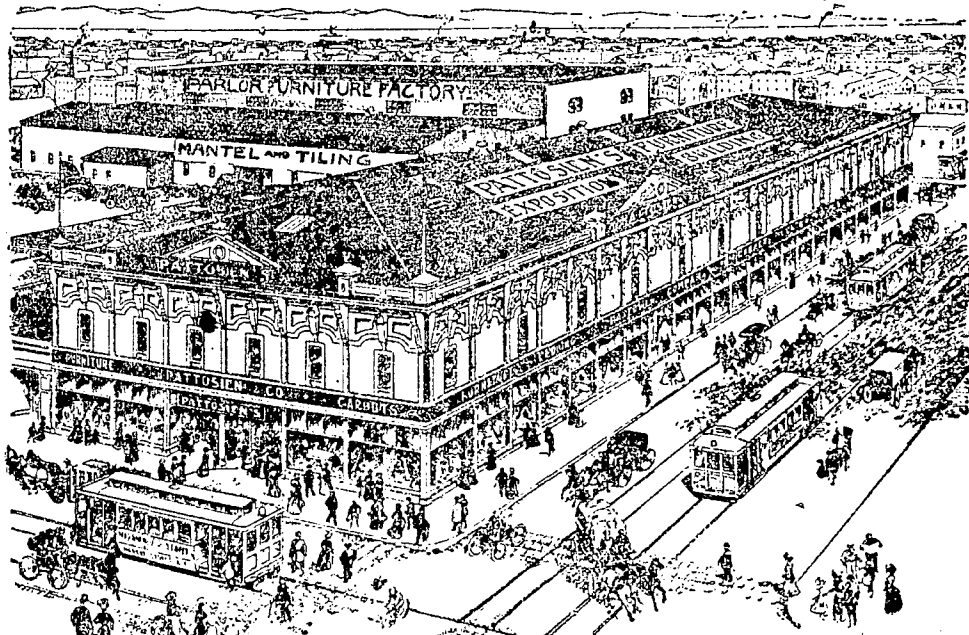

The New Store at 16th Street and San Pablo avenue, Oakland, that will be a central supply point for Alameda and Contra Costa Counties.

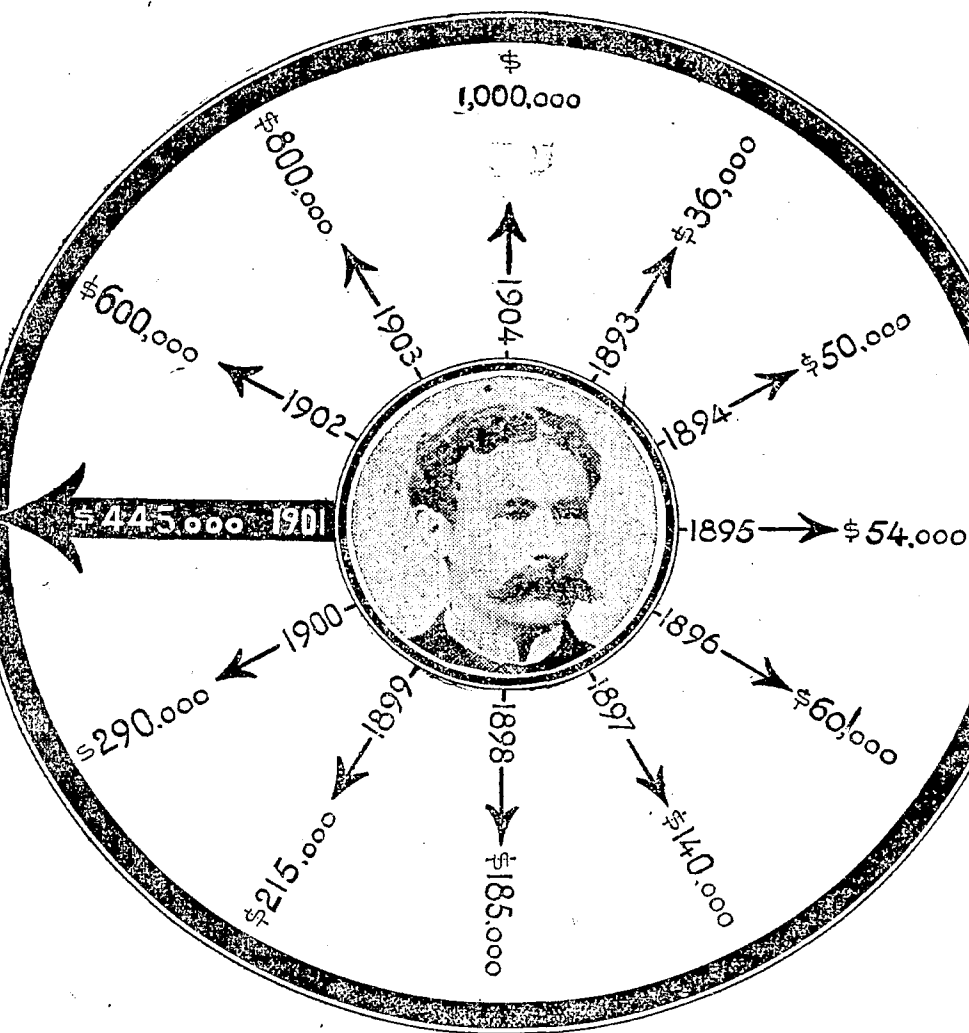

The First Growth.

For a year it grew slowly and then moved to larger and better adapted quarters, on the corner of Sixteenth and Valencia. Under the far-seeing, guiding hand of President W. J. Pattosien the Pattosien Furniture Company grew in importance month by month, and when five years of its tenancy had passed there the volume of trally located, at Sixteenth street and San Pablo avenue, and will be a handsome modern block, giving room for one of the finest furniture stores in the State. This store is intended for across-the-bay shoppers, who will thus be offered an opportunity of buying at home at the celebrated low Pattosien prices various articles of house furnishings they may need without being put to the trouble of coming across the bay.

The Store That Has Made the Mission Famous.

A striking demonstration of what a live man, with the right prices and right ideas of business, can do in a short time. Year by year you can trace each year's business and estimate what the future business will be.

The new and commodious Warehouses of the Pattosien Company at 16th and Harrison streets, almost adjoining the big Mission store.

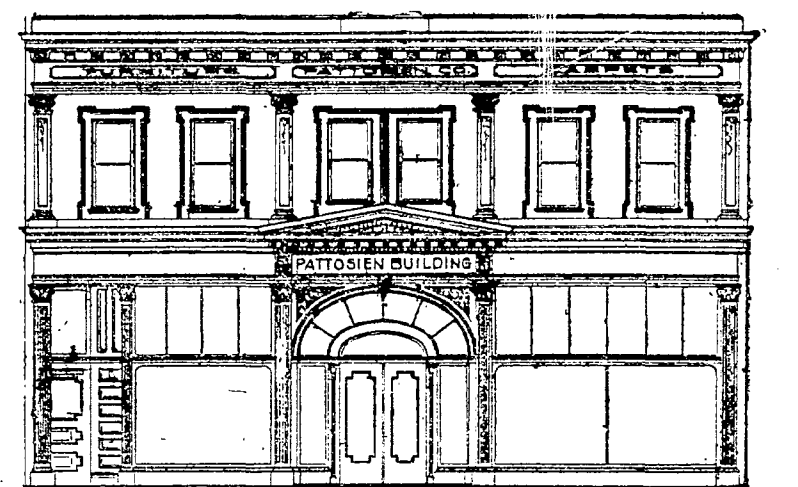

The Palo Alto Store.

The Palo Alto Store is intended as a distributing point for the rich and fertile Santa Clara valley, permitting people to secure complete house furnishing outfits at the same prices that prevail in the big San Francisco store. The Pattosien Company will be enabled to deliver and set up furniture on the premises of purchasers, lay carpets and hang curtains as handsomely as though the purchaser lived in San Francisco. All along the line from Los Gatos, San Jose, Mountain View, Palo Alto and Redwood City to San Mateo will this be possible.

Francisco that has direct communication with the railroad, and it allows the Pattosien Company to take its furniture from the cars to its warehouse and store direct, and deliver direct from the factory and warehouse to the home, avoiding the long haul in wagons over cobble streets that generally manages to put the furniture in the down-town stores in a condition almost bordering on wreckage.

Low Prices.

Besides the great advantage of being so situated as to handle goods

The new store at Palo Alto that is designed to afford easy buying for people of the great Santa Clara Valley at strictly San Francisco prices—that is Pattosien's unrivaled low prices.

The New Warehouse.

The new warehouse, nearing completion at Sixteenth and Harrison streets, will be connected directly with the railroad, and being only two blocks from the main store, will be a tremendous advantage in handling goods. This is the only furniture store in San direct from the cars, the Pattosien Company has another undoubted advantage over the high-priced down-town stores. It effects an enormous saving in rent that allows it to make very material reductions in prices on every line of furniture it carries. And it is these reductions that have gained for the company its chief fame and caused buyers from every section of the State to go out to the Mission and do their buying, for they are certain to find not only the lowest prices ever known, but the largest, and grandest exposition of furniture and all household articles ever gathered under one roof in the West. And it is this state of affairs that has made the success of the Pattosien Company so phenomenal, notwithstanding the establishment of one or more big furniture stores on Market street.

Within two years Mr. Pattosien expects to see the volume of business roll up to the $1,000,000 mark.

OAKLAND HARBOR IMPROVEMENT.

From the telegraph summary of the Rivers and Harbors bill it appears that California has fared very well in the matter of appropriations with the solitary exception of Oakland Harbor. That is set down for a beggarly $100,000, whereas what we asked was that the harbor improvement be placed under the continuous contract system on the basis of an estimated cost a little less than $1,000,000.

It is difficult to see why the committee have refused to make this recommendation, for there has been larger growth of shipping in Oakland Harbor than almost any other point. The size and importance of the community served by the harbor and the volume of traffic passing through constitute a valid demand for the improvement contemplated by the provisions of the last river and harbor bill, which was talked to death in the Senate.

However, the committee's recommendations are not final. When the bill gets before the House Congressman Metcalf will doubtless exert all his influence to secure a larger appropriation. Senator Perkins can also be relied on to increase the appropriation. He is in a position to exert a potent influence in the matter, and Senator Bard can hardly fail to lend him all the assistance at his command, for Mr. Bard's section of the State has fared very well indeed.

While the outlined report of the committee is disappointing, it should not cause discouragement; on the contrary, it should stimulate those interested in Oakland Harbor, including our Congressman and Senator, to redouble their efforts to get what we want and what we are entitled to.

SPORTS OF THE COLLEGE BOYS

Athletes Are Now Taking an Interest in the Field Day Events.

BERKELEY, March 4.—An interesting, although one-sided game of baseball was played on the University Campus yesterday afternoon between the Varsity nine and the Alumni. The final score was 14 to 4 in favor of the Varsity.

Among the players of the Alumni team was "Berk" Morse, the redoubtable Blue and Gold athlete who distinguished himself on the diamond field ball field and track.

The Varsity team played a snappy game and was not in danger of defeat at any time by the Alumni, who plainly showed the lack of conditioning. Overall, one of the Varsity pitchers did excellently for several innings, his batting being a feature of the game. Pitcher Williams injured his hand early in the game and was compelled to retire. The line up was as follows:

TRACKMEN MEET.

BERKELEY, March 4.—At a meeting of the trackmen of the Freshman Class yesterday afternoon in the training quarters, C. Westhall and Harry Howard, both formerly of the Oakland High School were candidates for the honor of being the track captain of the Freshman Class. They both received the same number of votes.

The two athletes, it is understood, will agree between themselves as to whom will be captain.

CHINESE FRESHMAN.

BERKELEY, March 4.—An Ching, a Chinese Freshman, is one of the candidates for a place on the Freshman team which will compete with the Sophomore athletes on March 23. He has entered in the spirit and with a great deal of zest and every evening trains with the American boys.

He speaks English fluently and has adopted the American style of dress and wearing the hat.

He is training for the pole vault and for the half mile dash. If class spirit and enthusiasm for anything, An Ching will be a factor in Freshman athletics. It is possible that with the endurance characteristic of his race, he may be able to carry off one of the prizes in one of the long distance runs.

This is the first instance in the history of the college that a Chinese has entered himself in field athletics.

FIELD DAY.

BERKELEY, Mar. 4.—Considerable talk among the students is heard relative to the decision to hold the intercollegiate field day at Palo Alto instead of Tanforan. While there is an agreement between the Universities to the effect that the field days will be held alternately at Berkeley and Palo Alto, yet many think that holding the field day at Berkeley is a disadvantage, and that the field day should be held at Tanforan. The field days held at Stanford have been comparatively unprofitable. Those held in the vicinity of Berkeley have attracted splendid financial returns. As money for the advancement of athletics is not always forthcoming, and as the students have been compelled to pay to levy assessments to defray current expenses, they think it would be a wise plan to hold the intercollegiate field day at Tanforan or some other convenient track.

Manager Deacon of the University of California and Manager Edwards of Stanford have, however, definitely settled on the Palo Alto grounds and there is little hope that Stanford can be induced to forego her right to name the place and have the field day held at some place where the financial returns would be large.

B. Westdahl, formerly of the Oakland High School, is one of the promising Freshmen in the distance run. He has a record of 4:50 for the mile and is capable of much more. By hard and consistent training it would not be out of the range of possibilities if he were to make the Blue and Gold team which will compete with the Eastern universities.

Harry Howard, also of the Oakland High School, is a promising candidate for honors in the quarter mile dash. He has a record of 32 seconds for that distance, which is an exceedingly creditable mark for a Freshman.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

BERKELEY, Mar. 4.—The final University doubles to decide who will represent the Blue and Gold in the tennis tournament with Stanford will be decided next Saturday on the Varsity tennis courts.

William Powell, the crack hurdler and jumper, has accepted the position of coach at the Santa Rosa High School.

In Detroit yesterday a second warrant was issued by Prosecuting Attorney Hunt for F. C. Andrews, whose overcoat and over-vested checked coat were found in the City Savings Bank, charging him with misappropriating the bank's funds.

"WAY DOWN EAST" SCORES SUCCESS

Miss Gracie Craib Hull in Important Part Makes a Hit.

"Way Down East" filled the Macdonough Theatre last night, and it will do the same every night this week, because the play is billed for the rest of the week. It is the only place that could be expected to draw large houses for six consecutive performances in this city. Last night it charmed a packed auditorium and there is no doubt that it will have the same kind of an auditory during the rest of the engagement.

There is a special feature of interest in this visit of the company, and that is the fact that an Oakland girl is in the cast. The part of Kate Brewster is played by Miss Gracie Craib Hull, and it is played as it was never played before. She Hull was recognized as soon as she made her appearance last night, and the welcome she received was both warm and hearty. Miss Craib, whose stage name is Hull, has made a great success in her chosen profession. She has been upon the stage for only a short time, but in that time she has attained to a success which is most gratifying and which foreshadows greater things. A stronger company could not be desired to produce the play, and Miss Craib is among the stars of the production. She plays the part of Kate Brewster as it was never played before. She imparts to it the guilelessness of a country girl and garnishes it with a buoyancy and an occasional dash of spirit of the unconventional order which is most charming. She is petite and pretty. Her laughter is merry and girlish and her intuition is portrayed with a naivete which is perfectly convincing. She deserves to rank among the stars of this great production.

The play "Way Down East" serves a dual purpose. It tells a tale and enforces a moral. It shows that the consequences of a crime should be visited upon the man who committed it, and it shows also that the hypocrisy of the man should be unmasked, a circumstance which is not always the case when a woman is the sufferer.

In "Way Down East" the tale is strongly told. The actor is suited to the part and the ensemble is perfect in every detail.

People who have lived in that part of the country known as "back East" will recognize in every character an old acquaintance, so perfectly are the personages drawn. Those who have not resided there will appreciate the characters because of the skill which is displayed in their rendition. Each character, in itself, is a study and each has an expert to interpret it. A play calling for a wider display of versatility and talent does not occupy the boards. There was no performance last night, who did not come in for a share of the plaudits of the audience. As a consequence, people smiled and wept and wept and smiled. Tears rolled down the rugged cheeks of men long unused to this prerogative of femininity, and the man seemed to feel that it was mainly to cry under the circumstances. And so it was, because "Way Down East" is a play of sentiment, a play that stirs the emotions, a play that touches the heart, and, as a consequence, tears must flow.

It will be played every night this week, and there will be a packed house each night.

AT THE DEWEY.

The "Red Cat Inn" was produced at the Dewey Theatre last night and convulsed everybody with laughter. It is really the funniest play which has ever been produced at this theatre. It is full of amusing situations, the point of which is appreciated by the performers. The audience was large and appreciative and there will be a succession of large audiences throughout the week.

PECK'S THEATRE.

Peck's Broadway Theatre was filled last night at each of the performances and the audience in each instance was as appreciative as it was large in numbers. Every performer was a star, a fact of which the audience showed its appreciation by means of hearty recalls. The same bill will be repeated every night this week.

ROSENWASSER'S VAUDEVILLE.

The week at Rosenwasser's Vaudeville house opened last night with a large audience, which literally cheered everything in sight. The illustrated songs were charmingly rendered, the moving pictures were new and interesting and the troupe of colored performers displayed talent of the most entertaining character. The same bill will be presented every evening this week.

Owing to a recent bereavement in the bride's family the wedding was conducted with as little ostentation as possible, only near relatives being present.

The bride wore a very handsome gown of white lace over white silk, trimmed with rare old lace that is a family heirloom. Her roses formed the bouquet, and over all fell the long veil of tulle.

The bride was attended only by her sister, Mrs. Belle Brownell, who was kindly groomed in white organdy over pink silk and carried pink roses and maidenhair fern.

The bride is the youngest daughter of William P. Haswell, owner and president of the Big Four mine. She is a winsome girl and has many accomplishments, and is an artist of considerable ability as well as a talented musician.

J. A. FILLMORE'S WILL TO BE FILED TODAY

The will of the late Jerome A. Fillmore, the railroad official who died on Thursday, will be filed for probate today by Attorney H. G. Platt. The testament was read yesterday by Mr. Platt in the presence of the widow, daughter and other relatives. The estate is left to the widow, who is appointed executrix without bonds. As near as can be ascertained, Mr. Fillmore's life was insured for $10,000, made payable, with the exception of $5,000, to the widow at her surviving property. The $5,000 is made payable to Mr. Fillmore's estate. The total value of the estate will not exceed $10,000. There is some realty in Southern California, but it is said to be incumbered and will not realize much after the mortgage is paid. The trustees of the Southern Pacific Employees' Mutual Benefit Association will shortly arrange to pay over to the widow $10,000 on a policy Mr. Fillmore held in that institution.

MEETING OF ENCINAL BOARD

CITY FATHERS ARE IN FAVOR OF RED LEMONADE AT A BALL.

ALAMEDA, March 4.—The City Trustees met in regular session last night. The bills and salaries were allowed and ordered paid. They were as follows: Regular bills, $1,781.96; salaries, $3,962; special bills, $571.30. The matter of insuring the machinery of the electric light plant was brought up but was laid over until the next meeting, which has lately been put in, is accepted. The question of insurances led to a discussion of the new machinery. Trustee Mackie did not think it was right that the city be compelled to pay the $300 which has already been handed over, until the machinery was accepted by the Board. Considerable trouble is being had with the new engine, and Mr. Mackie is of the opinion that the Board made a mistake in paying one-third cash down. The skylights in the City Hall, which were broken during the recent storm, were ordered repaired. Chairman Combs of the Street Committee reported the expenses of that department during the past month to be $1,275. A petition from the property owners on Morton street, requesting that their street be supplied with lights was referred to the Electric Light Committee. A petition from the Bohemian Club asking permission to sell refreshments in their hall, which will take place in this city shortly, was given a cold bath by Trustee Mackie. Mr. Mackie moved that the request be granted providing they sold no intoxicating liquors. Now the Bohemians can only sell red lemonade and soda pop. Communication from Health Officer Steadman recommended that a new sewer be constructed on Central avenue. The matter was referred to the Street Superintendent and Committee. Bills for painting the house houses were presented and let as follows: Shield & Horton, W. 33, 315, John Heritage, Webster house, $124; John Heritage, Sherman street house, $162; Shield & Horton, Chestnut street, $25.50; W. P. Dillon, Condit house, $120. The report of the Hartford Steam Boiler Inspecting Company was read. The large boiler No. 4 at the electric light plant was condemned and the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole for investigation. There being no further business to come before the Board, the meeting adjourned.

HE TREATED THE CHILD LIKE A DOG

William Hallott, the deputy poundman who was arrested yesterday and carried off in handcuffs, was found guilty by Police Judge Smith this morning and he will be sentenced tomorrow. Hallott, who has frequently been in trouble, was accused of roughly handling a 2-year-old Johnny Ambrose, a boy with several other boys frightened, who with several other boys frightened, according to the boy, Hallott became enraged and, catching the boy around the neck, carried him to the pound wagon, notwithstanding the protests of citizens who were attracted by the little fellow's cries. The poundman handled the child in the most inhuman manner," said J. T. Bradley, an old man who had been called as a witness, and when I protested he said he would lock me up too. Other witnesses who testified against Hallott's treatment were E. R. Jones, R. W. Winkelman, W. H. Johnson and E. Bachus. J. Higgins was also a witness and he said that Hallott treated the child cruelly. "Why, man, don't you know you might have frightened that child into a fit of insanity?" the physician asked with considerable show of indignation. In making the poundman guilty Judge Smith said it was evident that he had used unnecessary force in arresting the child for interfering with an officer.

BOWLING.

Some of the City officials took a hand at the bowling game last evening

ing and made a pretty fair beginning for novices. Councilmen Courtney, Fitzgerald, Boyer, Bishop and Ruch, were particularly aggressive, but they failed to knock any splinters off the pins. George Gross practiced a slow curve, and the difficult spares he made brought down the house. "Who is the best bowler in the crowd?" asked an urchin, who dodged the officer and managed to get a glimpse of the players now and then. "There's no best, they are all bad," said a well-known city hall official. They had lots of fun with their ball and pins just the same and a bowling club will soon be formed. Following are officials who played last night: A. Gimmell, J. P. Courtney, Rod Church, Lou Plummer, R. A. Jackson, Geo. Fitzgerald, R. J. Boyer, A. W. Bishop, A. S. Ruch, George Gross.

DALTON'S CASE HAS BEEN SUBMITTED

The case of the county of Alameda against Henry P. Dalton, Assessor of the county, was resumed this morning before Judge Ogden. The county seeks to recover $7,684.95 which it alleges Mr. Dalton has illegally appropriated to his own use when he and pins just the same and a bowling club will soon be formed. Following are officials who played last night: A. Gimmell, J. P. Courtney, Rod Church, Lou Plummer, R. A. Jackson, Geo. Fitzgerald, R. J. Boyer, A. W. Bishop, A. S. Ruch, George Gross.

BREKELEY NEWS

BERKELEY, March 4.—Brigadier-General Kobbie has left for the East, consequently there will not be an official parade and review of the college cadets on Wednesday.

BERKELEY, March 4.—The arrangements for the high jinks of the junior girls, to be held on Saturday next, are about completed. The reception will be between 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon at Hearst's hall. Admission will be by invitation only. The cards may be obtained at the Co-op tomorrow morning between the hours of 10 and 12. The price of admission is 15 cents, the amount of the assessment of each girl.

The affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable social functions that has been held during the term. Dancing will be the order of things upstairs, while refreshments will be served on the lower floor. The young ladies will bring their skills in making assorted candies and Welsh rarebit. Chafing dishes will also be a feature of the reception. The dancers up-stairs will be served with coffee and lemonade during the afternoon. TRINITY METHODISTS ARE NOT SATISFIED.

BERKELEY, March 4.—The Trinity Methodist Endeavorers do not like the resolutions of endorsement passed by the County Union and the Alden C. E. in the case of W. M. Bird, who was accused of cruelty to his child. The Berkeley Society passed the following resolutions: "Whereas, Suspicion has been cast upon W. M. Bird, president of the Alameda Club, and his own church and society have exonerated him from said suspicion; and "Whereas, We believe that each society should be guided by its own dictates of what it deems right and just; and "Whereas, Our committee has investigated and reported to us; be it "Resolved, That in accordance with said investigation we cannot in honesty to ourselves agree to the findings of the Alden Presbyterian Church and Society; and be it further "Resolved, That we do not sanction the action of the Alameda County C. E. in exonerating Mr. Bird at its meeting February 17, 1902." The resolutions are signed by Wallace Turner, E. C. Gale and R. A. Needham.
